Conclusion

Congratulations, mighty Barbarian! You and your companions have destroyed the Frozen Horror, saving the Empire from an ice-shrouded doom. Zargon's plans in the Northlands have been thwarted, thanks to your cunning, bravery and skill.

In appreciation of your heroism, the tribal elders have awarded you and your fellow Heroes 1,000 gold coins each.

We have won this battle, but we must remain vigilant. Zargon's power grows still. The Frozen Horror returned once before when the Forces of Good thought it dead, and it may well return again. For now, though, the danger has passed.

Your people will sing your praises forever, Barbarian! Centuries from now, your descendants may have to find another champion to defend them against the agents of Chaos. May they find a Hero as worthy as you!

Zargon's plans in other regions remain unchecked. The Empire is sorely pressed on many fronts. Soon your services will be needed again. I fear that many dangerous tasks still lie ahead of you.

But for tonight, you and your companions are honored guests at a great feast. Tales of valor will be told, and there will be much rejoicing. Come receive the thanks of your kinsmen!

M This chest has a poison needle trap on it. If a Hero searches for treasure before the trap is disarmed, that Hero loses 2 Body Points. The chest contains the crystal key and a Potion of Healing. The potion restores up to 4 lost Body Points. Give the crystal key title to the Hero who found it.

L This ice tunnel is connected to the other ice tunnel in the other room. "L." Any Hero or monster landing on one of these squares immediately moves to the other ice tunnel square.

K The ice Gremlin treasure room tile is placed over the two small rooms to make one larger room. If the crystal key was stolen from the Hero or monster landing on one of these squares, the key will be here and can be reclaimed by the Heroes.

J The first Hero to search for treasure in this room finds a scroll and 2 Potions of Healing hidden behind the bookcase. Each potion restores up to 4 lost Body Points. For the scroll, the Hero draws a scroll card at random and lists it on his Character Sheet.

I This ice tunnel is connected to the other ice tunnel in the other room. "I." Any Hero or monster landing on one of these squares immediately moves to the other ice tunnel square.

QUEST 10 NOTES:

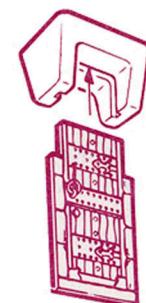

In many Quests, this special wooden door is used to exit the gameboard at the end of a Quest.

This iron door is placed on the edge of the Gameboard in many of the Quests. Heroes line up outside the iron door to begin these Quests.

Iron Entrance Door

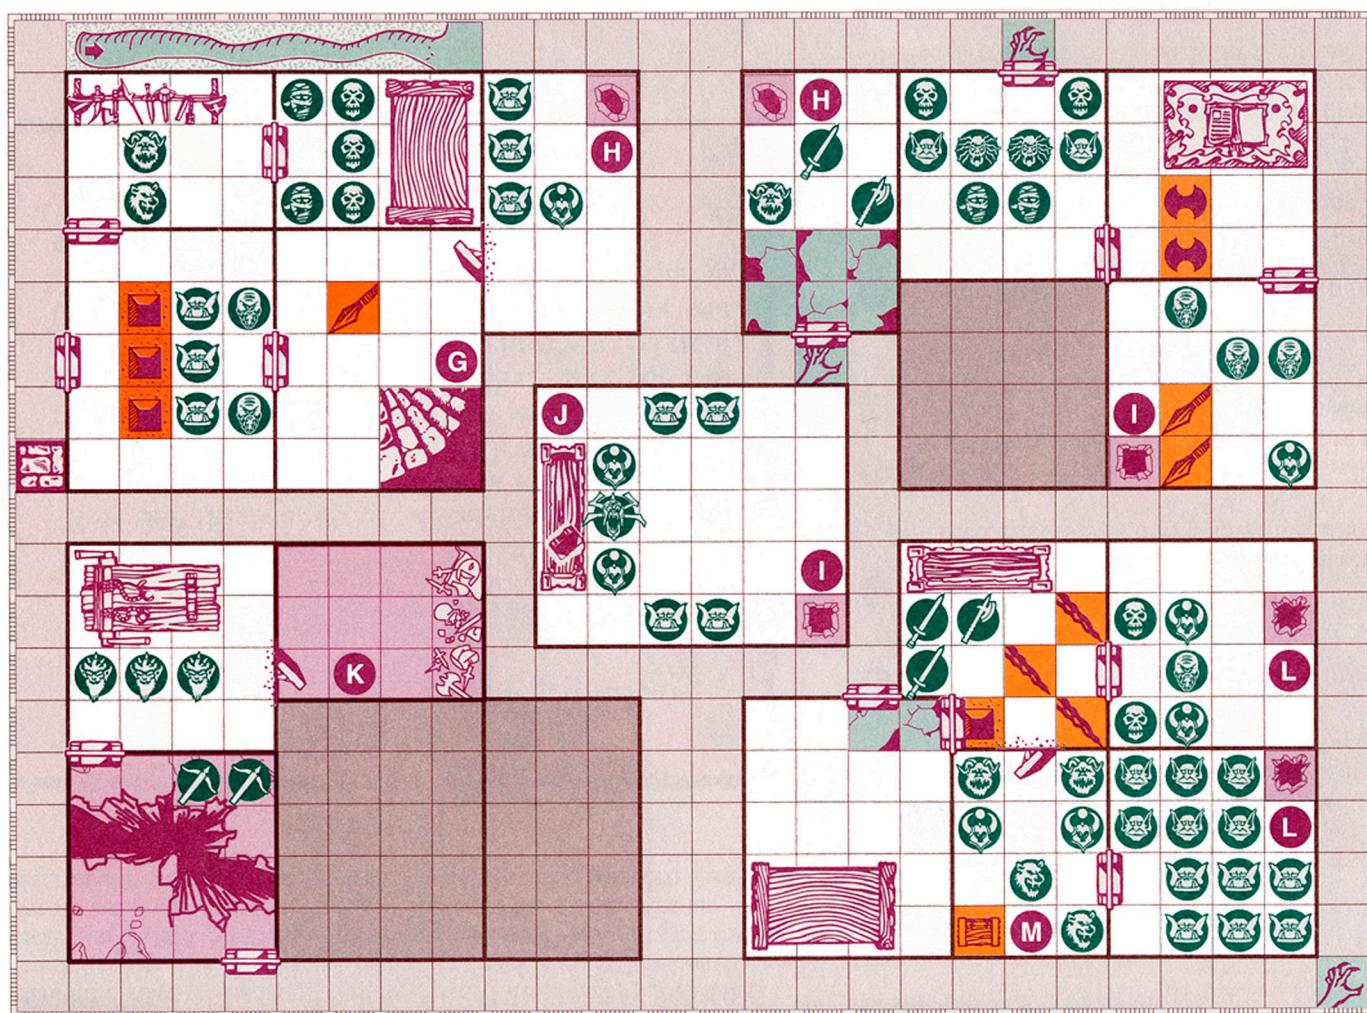

Take 2 Plastic door stands from the Game System. The 2 new doors in this Quest Pack should be fitted into the door bases as shown at right. These doors are described below.

Door Assembly

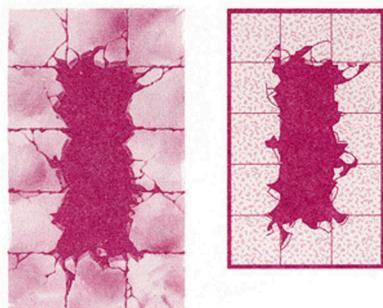

Note: The new cardboard components are shown below. Next to most components is a matching Quest map symbol. These symbols appear on each map to show you where to place components on the gameboard. For example, the iron entrance door shown below is represented on the Quest map by the symbol shown to the right of the door.

These symbols are also the symbol shown to the right of the door. "Quest map provided in the Game System Quest Book. All you have to do is photocopy the symbols and cut them out."

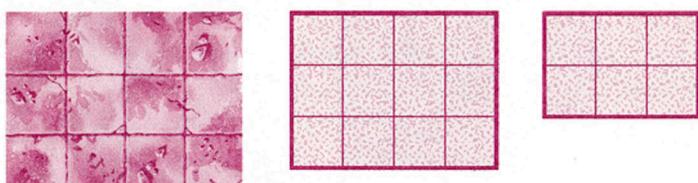

Ice Ledge

This slippery ledge surrounds a deep crevasse in the icy mountain. The Heroes must walk around the crevasse on the ledge, inches from a fall to the death.

Ice Vault

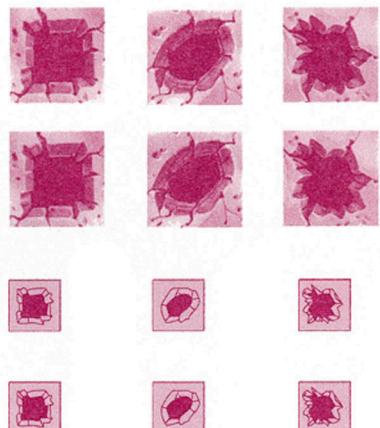

This frigid room drains heat from Heroes. For each turn in which a Hero enters or remains in this room, the Hero rolls 1 combat die. He loses 1 Body Point if he rolls a skull. Monsters are not affected by the heat-draining property of this room.

3x4 squares

Ice Tunnels

A pair of tunnel entrances connect two apparently unconnected rooms via an unseen tunnel. Any Hero or monster landing on one of these entrances immediately moves to the other entrance. After moving from one tunnel entrance to the other, the Hero's or monster's turn is over.

Ice Slide

Do not place the ice slide tile on the gameboard until a Hero steps on the first square of the slide. Any Hero who does step onto this slippery chute of ice is whisked away in the direction indicated by the arrow. The Hero immediately moves to the last square of the slide. (More than one Hero may occupy the exit square.) This ends the Hero's turn.

The slide is hidden and it cannot be searched for as a trap, nor can it be disarmed. When a Hero slips down an ice slide, he rolls 1 combat die. He loses 1 Body Point if he rolls a white shield. Monsters cannot move onto ice slide squares. Heroes cannot climb up an ice slide in the direction opposite to that indicated by the arrow.

- When a Hero reaches zero Mind Points, he is not dead but in shock. (A Hero cannot go below zero Mind Points.) He rolls only 1 red die to move, attacks with only 1 combat die, and defends with only 2 combat dice. (Armor, weapons and most artifacts do not increase the attack or defend dice when a Hero is in shock.) The shock after the Tailisman of Lore, can be lost in battle. For example, a Barbarian Tailisman of Lore, can be lost in battle. For example, a Barbarian Tailisman of Lore gains 3 Mind Points from certain artifacts (such as the Extra Mind Points gained from certain artifacts) and spell scrolls. The Extra Mind Points gained from certain artifacts (such as the Extra Mind Points gained from certain artifacts) and spell scrolls. Heroes attack and defend dice can be temporarily increased by some spells and spell scrolls.

- Note: As with a regular door, an exit door is not placed on the gamemode board by Zargon until a Hero looks down the appropriate corridor.

- The Heroes do not always start and end their Quests on the spiral staircase. The message from Mentor at the beginning of each Quest tells where the Heroes start and end the Quest. When there is an iron entry or wooden exit door, it is indicated on the Quest map by an arrow pointing into the gamemode board for the entry door, and out of the gamemode board for the exit door. When there is an entry door, it is always placed on the gamemode board in its specific location before each Quest begins. QUEST 8 — GROUP QUEST only one Barbarian at a time.

Female Barbarian. A group of Heroes can contain "Barbarian" in Quest Packs also applies to the Barbarian in the Game System. She can be used to replace the male Barbarian figure, if the player prefers to play a female character. Any reference to Barbarian in the Game System includes a figure for a female Barbarian. Her statistics are the same as the male Barbarian. Her stats also apply to the male Barbarian. A group of Heroes can contain only one Barbarian at a time.

The next five Quests are all group Quests. The last two Quests are also group Quests, but they are played as a single, double-sized Quest, as the Heroes must cross between the two Quests to achieve ultimate victory.

The first three Quests are solo adventures, designed for Play by a Barbarian alone. These can be used as an introduction to Hero Quests for a new player or as fun Quests to play when only two players are available. Also, if a new Barbarian is to join a party of experienced characters, these three Quests will enable the Barbarian to catch up with the other Heroes by gaining gold, equipment and magical items.

There are a few gameplay differences in the Barbarian Quest Pack. Quests in the Game System played the same way as the Quests are generally played between Quests. (All Body and Mind Points are restored.)

Playing the Barbarian Quest Pack

5. Rule Clarifications

- Passing Items: A Hero can pass a potion, artifact, weapon, or any other item to another Hero only if the 2 Heroes are in adjacent squares and neither Hero is adjacent to a monster.
- Spiral Stairway: During a Quest, if a Hero stands on a spiral stairway and attacks monsters, the monsters can attack back on Zargon's turn. When a spiral stairway is used as the exit at the end of a Quest, any Hero who moves onto that spiral stairway is immediately removed from the gameboard.
- Multiple Attacks: A Hero rolls defend dice once for each attacking monster. For example, a Hero attacked by 3 Zombies gets 3 separate defend rolls. A Hero attacked by a monster with multiple attacks (such as the Polar Warbear), however, gets only 1 defend roll against that monster per turn, no matter how many of the monster's attacks are directed at the Hero.

6. Wandering Monsters

Several Quests in this Quest Pack have multiple wandering monsters. These monsters may appear if a Hero draws a Wandering Monster card from the Treasure card deck or if a Hero moves onto a Wandering Monster trap as described above right. For example, when the Quest notes say, "Wandering monsters in this Quest: 3 Goblins," place 3 Goblins adjacent to the Hero who initiated the wandering monster encounter. If fewer than 3 adjacent squares are available, place the remaining monsters as close to the Hero as possible.

Note: If you run out of the monsters called for, substitute other monsters of similar strength.

. New Traps

The Wandering Monster trap, the Stalactite trap and the Swinging Axe trap do not have tiles.

Wandering Monster Trap: When a Hero moves onto a square with the trap symbol shown at left, tell the player that the Hero must stop on that square. The monster or monsters listed as wandering monsters for that Quest appear on any square or squares adjacent to the Hero or as close as possible. The monsters immediately attack and the Hero defends. (If the Hero has not already taken an action that turn, he may do so after he defends.) Otherwise the turn passes to the next player (or to Zargon). Each Wandering Monster trap can be activated only once. Monsters cannot activate it. Ignore the trap after the first time a Hero springs it. Wandering Monster traps are so well concealed that they are not detected when a Hero searches for traps.

Stalactite Trap: This deadly spear of ice clings to the ceiling of ice caverns. Unless searched for and disarmed, the stalactite falls upon the first Hero to move onto the trap square, causing 1 Body Point of damage. Monsters do not spring Stalactite traps.

Swinging Axe Trap: When a Hero moves onto this square, a huge axe swings out from a hidden alcove in the ceiling. The Hero then rolls 2 combat dice and loses 1 Body Point for each skull rolled. The Hero does not get to roll defend dice. A Swinging Axe trap can be searched for and disarmed. Until it is disarmed, a Swinging Axe trap affects every Hero who steps onto the square. Monsters do not spring Swinging Axe traps.

QUEST 7 — GROUP QUEST

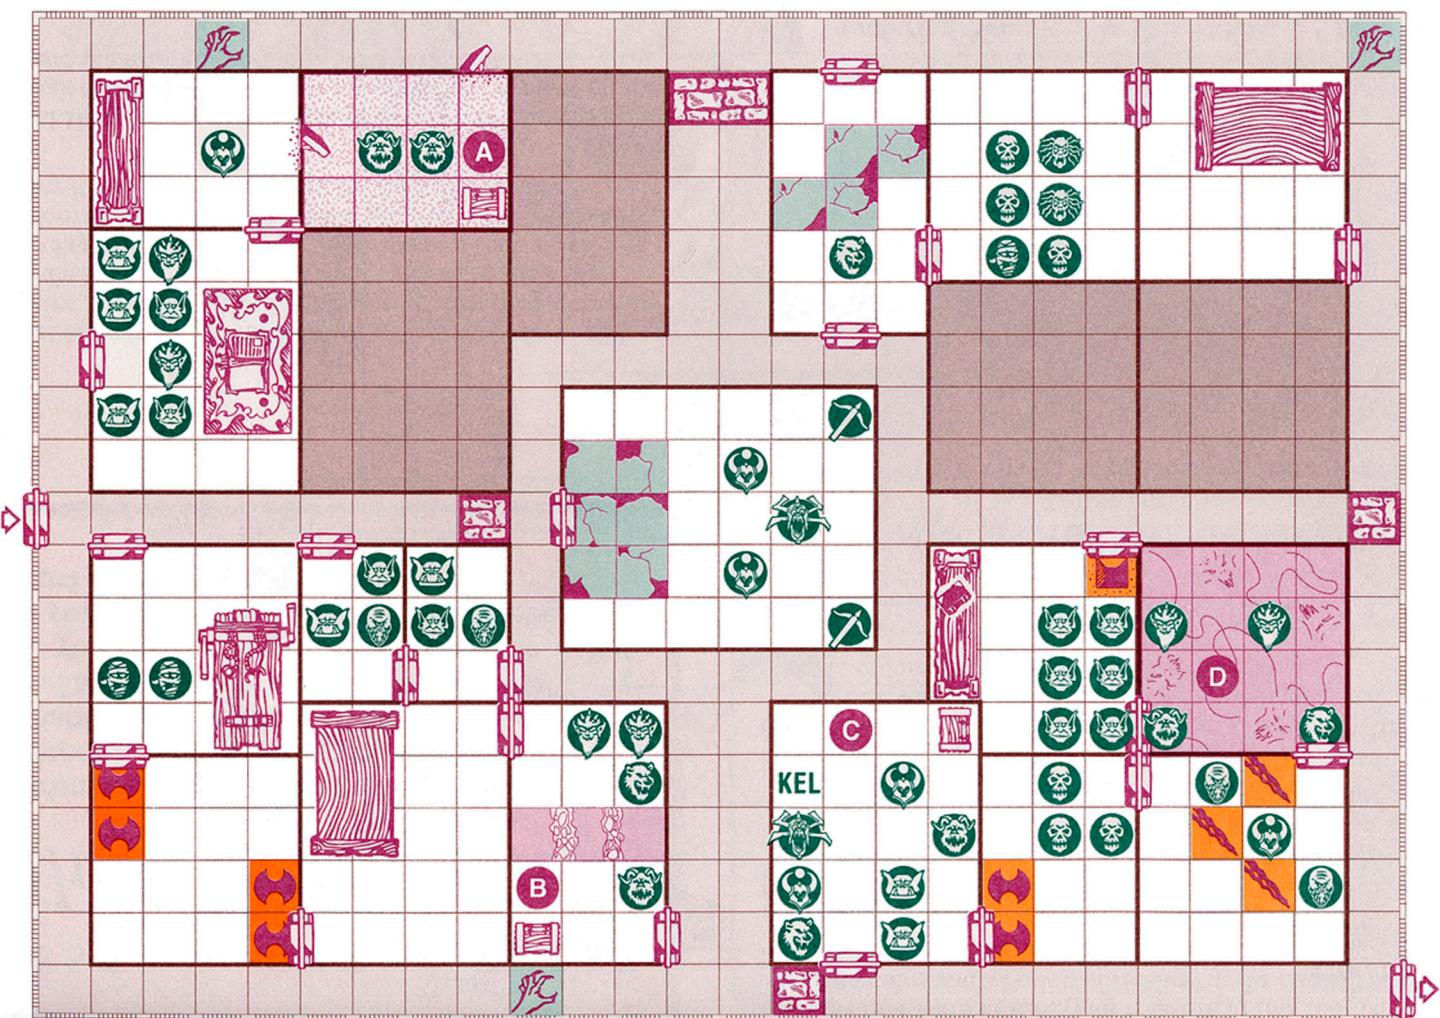

11. New Treasure Cards
 The 6 new treasure cards should be mixed into the Game System's deck of treasure cards before play begins. Draw from this deck when a Hero searches for treasure.

10. Treasure
 To eliminate conflicts among the Heroes, large gold coin treasures found in treasure chests should be divided among all surviving Heroes.

9. Selling Excess Items
 As the Heroes gain better equipment, they can sell some of their old items to the Armory. Only items that are listed for sale in the back of the carboard platform in the Game System can be sold back to the Armory (on the carboard platform in the Game System) can be sold for a larger price when selling items to the Armory. Thus a Hero who sells a longsword (which costs 350 gold coins) back to the Armory receives 175 gold coins. Items sold at the Armory for odd sums (the armor's price when selling items to the Armory) back to the Armory sells a longsword (which costs 350 gold coins) back to the Armory.

8. Large Monsters
 When a monstros takes up more than one square (the Frozen Horror in this Quest Pack, for instance), that monstros can attack anyone on any adjacent square (including diagonally), even if the monstros is facing away from the target.

- A mullet of the North, Ring of Warmth and Snowshoes of Speed: These artifacts are similar to the artifacts in the Game System. When a Hero finds one of these artifacts, he should record it on his character sheet.
 - Spell Scrolls: Six of the artifacts in this Quest Pack are spell scrolls. These are used just like the spell cards in the Game System. However, a spell scroll can be used by ANY Hero (not just the Wizard) and let the Hero draw one at random. The Hero should turn all of the spell scrolls in this Quest Pack face down, mix them up.
 - Spell Scrolls: When a Hero finds an unnamed spell scroll, Zargon should turn all off the Hero's Character Sheet.
12. New Artifact Cards
 These artifacts are used to the artifacts in the Game System. When a Hero finds one of these artifacts, he should record it on his character sheet.

13. Mercenaries

This Quest Pack contains 6 Mercenary figures, with 12 interchangeable weapons that enable you to put together the 4 different types of Mercenaries (the Scout, the Swordsman, the Crossbowman and the Halberdier).

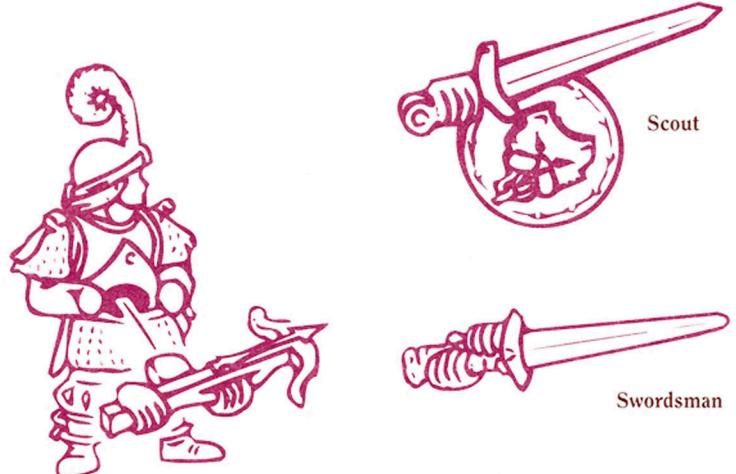

In some Quests, Mercenaries serve as evil monsters who oppose the Heroes. Whenever a Mercenary is shown on a Quest map, it should be considered a monster controlled by Zargon.

Mercenaries are also soldiers who can be hired by a Hero before a Quest begins. They will accompany any Hero on a Quest, if the Hero pays their fee. The fee for each type of Mercenary is given on the Mercenary's card, as well as on the Mercenaries Chart on page 33 of this book. The gold must be paid before the Quest begins. Mercenaries may be hired for any group Quest in this Quest Pack, but not for the solo Quests.

A Mercenary is controlled by the Hero who hired him. The Mercenary moves and attacks immediately after that Hero's turn. A Hero can control as many Mercenaries as he can afford to hire. A Mercenary can move, open doors, attack and defend as a Hero, but he can take no other actions (except for the Scout, who can search for and disarm traps). A Mercenary does not receive any treasure. If a Hero dies on a Quest, any Mercenary hired by that Hero continues on the Quest, controlled by the fallen Hero's player.

The Scout, Swordsman, Crossbowman and Halberdier each have different statistics and abilities. These are detailed on the cards that come in this Quest Pack, as well as on the Mercenaries Chart on page 33 of this book.

If a Quest map calls for a type of Mercenary that is not available because they've all been hired by Heroes, Zargon may substitute a different type of Mercenary, or another monster altogether.

Crossbowman

Halberdier

Attach one of the plastic weapons to each Mercenary as shown.

Zargon, study this book carefully! Although it is your guide to running these adventures, it may not answer every question you have during play. When in doubt, use your experience and imagination to make the best choice. Remember that you are the ultimate authority in your HERO QUEST world!

"Good luck, Barbarian, on this, your first of three trials! Servants of the Frozen Horror have overrun the fortress that guards Xanon Pass. You must find the wooden exit door that leads out to the far side of the pass."

The ice ledge that surrounds the crevasse is very slippery. When a Hero steps through a door and moves onto his first square in this room, he must roll 1 combat die. Any other roll means the Hero returns to the square in which he entered the room, ending his turn. At the beginning of any turn in which a Hero is in this room, he must first roll to see if he slips into the crevasse.

This chest has a trap with an explosive device. If a Hero searches for treasure before the trap is disarmed, all Heroes in the room lose 2 Body Points. The chest contains 600 gold coins.

The item immediately disappears from the gameboard.
